A P R A Y E R,
For the High Court of Parliament, to be read during their Session, in such place of these Prayers after the Litanie, as the Minister shall thinke fit.

Oft Gracious G O D,
wee humbly beseech
thee, as for this king-
dome in generall,
so especially for the High Court of Parliament, vnder our most Religious and Gracious King, at this time assembled ; That thou wouldest bee pleased to blesse and direct all their Consultations, to the preservation of thy glory, the good of thy Church, the safety, honour, and welfare of our Souereigne & his Kingdoms. Lord looke vpon the humility and deuotithy Courts; And they are come into thy house in assured confidence vp-on the merits and mercies of Christ (our blessed Sauour) that thou wilt not deny them the Grace & Fauour which they begge of thee. Therefore O Lord, blesse them with all that wisdom, which thou knowest necessary to speed, & bring great Designes into Action, and to make the maturity the happinesse and the blessing of this Commonwealth. These and all other necessaries for them, for vs, and thy whole Church, we humbly begge in the Name and mediation of Iesus Christ our most blessed Lord and Sauour. Amen.

¶ The Preface.

WEc be taught by many and sundry examples of holy Scriptures, that vpon occasion of particular punishments, afflictions and perils, which God of his most iust iudgement hath sometimes sent among his people, to shewe his wrath against sinne, and to call them to repentance, and to the redresse of their liues, all men ought to be prouoked and stirred vp to more seruencie and diligence in prayer, fasting and almes-deeds, to a more deepe consideration of their consciences, to ponder their vnthankfulnessse and forgetfulnessse of Gods mercifull benefits towards them, with crauing of pardon for the time past, and to aske his assistance for the time to come, to liue more godly, and so to be defended and deliuered from all further perils and dangers. So king David 2.Sam. 24. in the time of plague and pestilence which ensued vpon his vaine numbring of the people, prayed vnto God with wonderfull seruencie, confessing his fault, desiring God to spare the people, and rather to turne his ire to himward, who had chiefly offended in that transgression. The like was done by the vertuous kings, Iosaphat and Ezechias, in their distresse of warres 2.Chro. 20. 2.Reg. 19. and forreine inuasions. So did the King and people of Nineue Jonah 3.

The Preface.

n. 9. 4.

Nineue, and Hester, fall to humble prayers in like perils of their people. So did Daniel in his captiuitie, and many other moe in their troubles. Now therefore calling to minde, that God hath beene prouoked by vs to vilit vs at this present with the plague and other grieuous diseases: It hath beene thought meete to excite and stirre vp all godly people within this Realme, to pray earnestly and heartily to God to forgive vs our sinnes, and consequently to turne away his deserved wrath from vs, and to restore vs to his gracious fauour, and to our bodily health. And although it is euery Christian mans duety, of his owne deuotion to pray at all times: yet for that the corrupt nature of man is so slothfull and negligent herein, hee hath neede by often and sundry meanes to be stirred vp and put in remembrance of his duety. For the effectuall accomplishment whereof, it is thought meete that this order of Prayer following should at this time be published, being such as shall be vsed by the Minister in the Church, and may by euery man in his private family.

A forme of Common Prayer prescribed for this time of visitation and visit ation of other necessities.

I Et all Pastours and Curates exhort their Parsonages to come to the Church, with so many of their families as may bee spared from their necessary businesse (having yet a provident respect in such assemblies to keepe the sick from the wholne places where the Plague reigneth) and they to doe so, not onely on the Sundayes and Holy dayes: but also on Wednesdaies and Fridaies during the time of these present afflictions: exhorting them to behaue themselves there godly and reuerently, and with penitent hearts to pray vnto God against these plagues from vs, which wee through our vnthankfulness and sinfull life haue deserued.

The order for Morning Prayer

Let the Minister beginning service, read with a lowd voice one of these sentences of Scripture.

R But your words are not your garments, Iocl 2. and turne to the Lord your God, because his mercie is gentle and mercifull, he is patient, and of many mercies, and they a people that is lazy for your afflictions.

A Forme of Prayer

an. 9.

To thee (O Lord God) belongeth mercy and forgiveness, for wee haue gone away from thee, and haue not hearkened to thy voyce, whereby we might walke in thy Lawes which thou hast appointed for vs.

cr. 10.

Correct vs (O Lord) and yet in thy iudgement, not in thy fury, lest we should be consumed, and brought to nothing.

Dearely beloved brethren, the Scripture mooueth vs in sundry places, to acknowledge and confesse our manifold sinnes and wickednesse, and that wee should not denyable nor cloake them before the face of Almighty God our heavenly Father, but confesse them with an humble, lowly, penitent, and obedient heart, to the end that wee may obtaine forgiveness of the same, by his infinite goodness and mercy. And although we ought at all times humbly to acknowledge our sinnes before God, yet ought we most chiefly so to doe, when we assemble and meet together, to render thanks for the great benefites that we haue receiued at his handes, to set forth his most worthy praise, to heare his most holy word, and to aske those things which be requisite and necessary, as well for the body as the soule. Wherefore I pray and beseech you as many as bee here present, to accompany mee with a pure heart and humble voyce, vnto the Throne of the heavenly grace, saying after mee.

and thus say you

A general confession to be said of the whole Congregation after the Minister kneeling.

A Almighty and most mercifull Father, wee have erred and strayed from thy wayes like lost sheepe, wee have followed too much the desires and willes of our owne hearts, wee have offended against thy holy lawes, wee have left undone those things which we ought to have done, And we have done those things which we ought not to have done, And there is no health in vs: But thou, O Lord, haue mercy vpon vs miserable offenders. Spare thou them, O God, which confesse their faultes; Restore thou them that be penitent, according to the promises declared vnto mankinde in Christ Iesu our Lord: And graunt, O most mercifull Father, for his sake, that we may hereafter liue a godly, righteous, and sober life, to the glory of thy holy Name. Amen.

The absolution or remission of sinnes to bee pronounced by the Priest alone.

A Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, which desireth not the death of a sinner, but rather that hee may turne from his wickednesse and liue, and hath giuen power and commandement to his Ministers, to declare and pronounce to his people, being penitent, the absolution and remission of their sinnes: bee pardoned and absolued all them which truly repent, and vnfainedly beleue his holy Gospel. Wherefore wee beseech him to graunt vs true repentance and his holy spirit. That those things may please him which we do at this present, and that the rest of our life hereafter may be pure and holy so that at the last we may come to his rest shall say to you in the name of Christ our Lord trespasses as we forgive them that trespass

A forme of Prayer

8 But there is mercy with thee, that thou mayest be feared: and thou art full of compassion.

ay. 64. 9 Thou hast in thine indignation stricken vs with grievous sicknesse, & by and by wee haue fallen as leaues beaten downe with a vehement winde.

10 Indeed we acknowledge, that all punishments are lesse then our deservings: but yet of thy mercy Lord correct vs to amendment, and plague vs not to our destruction.

11 For thy hand is not shortned, that thou canst not helpe: neither is thy goodnesse abated, that thou wilt not heare.

12 Thou hast promised, O Lord, that afore wee cry thou wilt heare vs: whilst wee yet speake thou wilt haue mercy vpon vs.

13 For none that trust in thee shall be confounded: neither any that call vpon thee shall be despised.

14 For thou art the onely Lord, who woundest; and doest heale againe, who killest, and reuiuest, bringest ouen to hell, and bringest backe againe.

15 Our fathers hoped in thee, they trusted in thee, and thou diddest deliuer them.

16 They called vpon thee, and were helped: they put their trust in thee, and were not confounded.

17 O Lord, rebuke not vs in thine indignation: neither chasten vs in thy heauie displeasure.

18 Remember not the sinnes and offences of our youth: but according to thy mercy thinke thou vpon vs, O Lord, for thy goodnesse.

vnto thee: heare Lord, and haue mercy. 20

A forme of Prayer

O Lord rebuke me not in thine indignation : neither chasten mee in thy displeasure. O Lord, have mercy upon mee : O Lord, for I am weak : O Lord, heale mee for my bones are vexed. O Lord, my soule is also sore troubled : but how long wilt thou punish me.

Turne thee, O Lord, and deliver my soule : O heale me for thy mercies sake. For in death no man remembereth thee : and who will give thee thanks in the pit.

I am weary of my complaining : I weep night and day : my bed is full of weeping : my couch is full of my teares.

My beauty is gone for very trouble : and worne away because of all mine enemies. My prayer is : O Lord, hear my prayer : for the Lord hath heard the voyce of my weeping.

The Lord hath heard my petition : the Lord will receive my prayer. My enemies shall be confounded and sore vexed : they shall be turned backe, and put to shame suddenly.

Confitebor tibi, Domine

I will give thanks unto thee, O Lord, with my whole heart : I will speake of all thy marvellous workes.

I will be glad and reioyce in thee : yea, my songs

for this time of Visitation, &c.

songs will I make of thy Name, O thou most Highest.

3 While mine enemies are driven backe: they shall fall and perish at thy presence.

4 For thou hast maintained my right and my cause: thou art set in the throne that iudgeth right.

5 Thou hast rebuked the Heathen, and destroyed the vngodly: thou hast put out their name for ever and ever.

6 O thou enemy, destructions are come to a perpetuall end: even as the cities which thou hast destroyed, their memoriall is perished with them.

7 But the Lord shall endure for ever: hee hath also prepared his seate for iudgement.

8 For hee shall iudge the world in righteousness: and minister true iudgement vnto the people.

9 The Lord also will be a defence for the oppressed: even a refuge in due time of trouble.

10 And they that know thy Name, will put their trust in thee: for thou Lord hast never failed them that seeke thee.

11 O praise the Lord which dwelleth in Si-on: shew the people of his doings.

12 For when he maketh inquisition for blood, hee remembreth them: and forgetteth not the complaint of the poore.

13 Have mercie vpon mee, O Lord, consider the trouble which I suffer of them that hate mee:

mee: thou that liftest mee vp from the gates of death.

14 That I may shew all thy praises within the ports of the daughter of Sion: I will reioyce in thy salvation.

15 The heathen are smite downe in the pit that they made: in the same net which they hid priuily, is their foote taken.

16 The Lord is kind well to execute iudgement: the vngodly is trapped in the worke of his owne hands.

17 The wicked shall be turned into hell: and all the people that forget God.

18 For the pooze shall not alway be forgotten: the patient abiding of the meeke shall not perishe for euer.

19 O Lord, and let not man haue the vpper hand: let the heathen be iudged in thy sight.

20 Put them in feare, O Lord: that the heathen may know themselves to be but men.

Blessed is hee whose vnrigheteousness is forgiven: and whose sinne is couered.

2 Blessed is the man vnto whom the Lord imputeth no sinne: and in whose spirit there is no guile.

3 For while I held my tongue: my bones consumed away thorow my dayly complaining.

4 For thy hand is heauy vpon mee day and night: and my moisture is like the drought in Summer.

5 I will

for this time of Visitation, &c.

5. I will knowlege my sinne unto thee: and mine vnrightheousnesse haue I not hid.

6. I said, I will confesse my sinnes vnto the Lord: and so thou forgavest the wickednesse of my sinnes.

7. For this shall every one that is godly make his prayer vnto thee in a time when thou mayest be found: but in the great water floods they shall not come nigh him.

8. Thou art a place to hide me in, thou shalt preserve mee from trouble: thou shalt compasse me about with thy mercies of deliuerance.

9. I will informe thee, and teach thee in the way wherein thou shalt goe: and I will guide thee with mine eye.

10. Be ye not like to horse and mule, which haue no vnderstanding: whose mouthes must be holden with bit and bridle, lest they fall vpon thee.

11. Great plagues remaine for the wicked: but who so putteth his trust in the Lord, mercie shall embrace him on euery side.

12. Be glad, O ye righteous, and reioyce in the Lord: and be ioyfull all ye that are true of heart.

Domine ne in furore percas me. The Lord will not rebuke me in his anger: neither chasten mee in thy heavy displeasure.

13. For thine arrowes sicke fast in me: and thy hand presseth me sore.

A forme of Prayer

3 There is no health in my flesh, because of thy displeasure: neither is there any rest in my bones, by reason of my sinne.

4 For my wickednesses are gone ouer my head: and are like a soze burden too heauy for me to beare.

5 My wounds stinke & are corrupt: through my foolishnesse.

6 I am brought into so great trouble and misery: that I goe mourning all the day long.

7 For my loynes are filled with a soze disease: and there is no whole part in my body.

8 I am feeble and soze smitten: I haue roared for the very disquietnesse of my heart.

9 Lord thou knowest all my desire: and my groaning is not hid from thee.

10 My heart panteth, my strength hath failed me: and the sight of mine eyes is gone from mee.

11 My louers and my neighbours did stand looking vpon my trouble: and my kinsmen stood as farre off.

12 They also that sought after my life laid snares for me: and they that went about to doe me euill, talked of wickednesse, and imagined deceit all the day long.

13 As for mee, I was like a deafe man and heard not: and as one that is dumbe, which doth not open his mouth.

14 I became euen as a man that heareth not: and in whose mouth are no reproofes.

for this time of Visitation, &c.

15 For in thee, O Lord, have I put my trust: thou shalt answer for me, O Lord my God.

16 I have required that they (even mine enemies) should not triumph over me: for when my foote slipt, they reioyced greatly against mee.

17 And I truely am set in the plague: and my heavinesse is ever in my sight.

18 For I will confesse my wickednesse: and be sorry for my sinne.

19 But mine enemies line, and are mighty: and they that hate me wrongfully are many in number.

20 They also that reward euill for good, are against mee: because I follow the thing that good is.

21 Forsake me not, O Lord my God: bee not thou farre from me.

22 Hasten thee to helpe me: O Lord God of my saluation.

Dixi, custodiam. Psal. 39.

I Said I will take heede to my wayes: that I offend not in my tongue.

2 I will keepe my mouth (as it were with a bridle:) while the vngodly is in my sight.

3 I held my tongue, and spake nothing: I kept silence, yea, even from good wordes, but it was paine and griefe to me.

4 My heart was hote within me, and while I was thus musing, the fire kindled: and at the last I spake with my tongue.

5 Lord, let me know mine end, and the number of my dayes: that I may bee certified how long I haue to liue.

6 Behold, thou hast made my dayes as it were a span long: and mine age is euen as nothing in respect of thee, and verily every man liuing is altogether vanitie.

7 For man walketh in a vaine shadow, and disquieteth himselfe in vaine: hee heapeth vp riches, and cannot tell who shall gather them.
8 And now, Lord, what is my hope? true-ly my hope is euen in thee.

9 Deliuer mee from all mine offenses: and make me not a rebuke vnto the foolish.
10 I became dumbe, and opened not my mouth: for it was thy doing.

11 Take thy plague away from mee: I am euen consumed by the meanes of thy heauie hand.

12 When thou with rebukes dost chasten man for sinne, thou makest his beautie to consume away like as it were a moth fretting a garment: every man therefore is but vanitie.

13 Heare my prayer, O Lord, and with thine eares consider my calling: hold not thy peace at my troubles.

14 For I am a stranger with thee, and a sojourner: as all my fathers were.

15 Oh spare mee a little, that I may recouer my strength: before I goe hence, and bee no more seene.

Miserere

for this time of Visitation, &c.

Miserere mei Deus. Psal. 51.

Have mercy vpon me, O God, after thy great goodnesse: according to the multitude of thy mercies doe away mine offences. 41

2 Wash me thoroughly from my wickednesse: and cleanse me from my sinne.

3 For I acknowledge my faults: and my sinne is euer before me.

4 Against thee onely haue I sinned, and done this euill in thy sight: that thou mightest be iustified in thy saying, and cleare when thou art iudged.

5 Behold, I was shapen in wickednesse: and in sinne hath my mother conceived me.

6 But loe, thou requitest truely in the inward parts: and shalt make mee to vnderstand wisdomes secretly.

7 Thou shalt purge me with hyssope, and I shall be cleane: thou shalt wash me, and I shall be whiter then snow.

8 Thou shalt make me heare of ioy and gladnesse: that the bones which thou hast broken may reioyce.

9 Turne thy face from my sinnes: and put out all my misdeedes.

10 Make me a cleane heart, O God: and renew a right spirit within me.

11 Cast me not away from thy presence: and take not thy holy Spirit from me.

12 O giue mee the comfort of thy helpe againe: and stablish me with thy free spirit.

13 Then

A forme of Prayer

13 Then shall I teach thy wayes vnto the wicked: and sinners shall bee conuerted vnto thee.

14 Deliuer mee from blood-guiltinesse, O God, thou that art the God of my health: and my tongue shall sing of thy righteousnesse.

15 Thou shalt open my lips, O Lord: and my mouth shall shew thy prayse.

16 For thou desirest no sacrifice, else would I giue it thee: but thou delightest not in burnt offerings.

17 The sacrifice of God is a troubled spirit: a broken and contrite heart, O God, shalt thou not despise.

18 O bee favourable and gracious vnto Si- on: build thou the walles of Hierusalem.

19 Then shalt thou be pleased with the sacrifice of righteousnesse, with the burnt offerings and oblations: then shall they offer young bullocks vpon thine Altar.

Inclina Domine. Psal. 86.

Bow downe thine eare, O Lord, and heare me: for I am poore and in misery.

8 Among the gods there is none like vnto thee, (O Lord:) there is not one that can doe as thou doest.

9 All Nations whom thou hast made, shall come and worship thee, O Lord: and shall glorifie thy Name.

10 For thou art great, and doest wondrous things: thou art God alone.

11 Teach me thy way, O Lord, and I will walke in thy trueth: O knit my heart vnto thee, that I may feare thy Name.

12 I will thanke thee, O Lord my God, with all my heart: and will praise thy Name for euermore.

13 For great is thy mercy toward mee: and thou hast deliuered my soule from the nethermost hell.

16 With long life will I satissie him: and shew him my saluation.

Domine exaudi. Psal. 102.

HEare my prayer, O Lord: and let my crying come vnto thee.

1 Hide not thy face from mee in the time of my trouble: encline thine eares vnto mee when I call, O heare me and that right soone.

2 For my dayes are consumed away like smoake: and my bones are burnt vp as it were a firebrand.

3 My heart is smitten downe, and withered like grasse: so that I forget to eat my bread.

4 For the voyce of my groning: my bones will scarce cleaue to my flesh.

5 I am become like a Pelicane in the wilderness: and like an Owle that is in the desert.

6 I haue watched, and am euen as it were a sparrow: that sitteth alone vpon the house top.

7 Mine enemies reuile me all the day long: and they that are mad vpon me, are twome together against me.

8 For I haue eaten ashes as it were bread: and mingled my drinke with weeping.

9 And that because of thine indignation and wrath: for thou hast taken me vp, and cast me downe.

A forme of Prayer

11 My dayes are gone like a shadow: and I am withered like grasse.

12 But thou, (O Lord) shalt endure for ever: and thy remembrance throughout all generations.

13 Thou shalt arise and haue mercy vpon Sion: for it is time that thou haue mercy vpon her, yea, the time is come.

14 And why? thy seruants thinke vpon her bones: and it pitieth them to see her in the dust.

15 The Heathen shall feare thy Name, O Lord: and all the kings of the earth thy Majesty.

16 When the Lord shall build vp Sion: and when his glory shall appeare.

17 When hee turneth him vnto the prayer of the poore destitute: & despiseth not their desire.

18 This shall be written for those that come after: and the people which shall be borne shall praise the Lord.

19 For he hath looked down from his Sanctuary: out of the heauen did the Lord behold the earth.

20 That hee might heare the mournings of such as be in captiuitie: and deliuer the children appointed vnto death.

21 That they may declare the Name of the Lord in Sion: and his worship at Hierusalem.

25 Thou Lord in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth: and the heauens are the worke of thy hands.

26 They shall perish, but thou shalt endure: they all shall ware old as doth a garment.

27 And as a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shalbe changed: but thou art the same, and thy yeeeres shall not faile.

28 The children of thy seruants shal continue: and their seed shall stand fast in thy sight.

De profundis. Psal. 130.

HEare my prayer, O Lord: and consider my desire: hearken vnto mee for thy trueth and righteousnesse sake.

2 And enter not into iudgement with thy seruant: for in thy sight shall no man liuing bee iustified.

3 For the enemy hath persecuted my soule, he hath smitten my life downe to the ground: he hath layd me in the darknesse, as the men that haue beene long dead.

4 Therefore is my spirit vexed within mee: and my heart within me is desolate.

5 Yet doe I remember the time past, I muse vpon all thy workes: yea, I exercise my selfe in the workes of thy hands.

6 I stretch forth my hands vnto thee: my soule gaspeth vnto thee, as a thirsty land.

7 Heare me, O Lord, and that soone, for my spirit wareth faint: hide not thy face from mee, lest I be like vnto them that goe downe into the pit.

And take not thy holy Spirit from vs.

The first Collect.

Almightie, most iust and mercifull God, we here acknowledge our selues most vnworthy to lift vp our eyes vnto heauen: for our conscience doth accuse vs, and our sins doe reprobue vs. Wee know also that thou, Lord, beeing a iust Judge, must needs punish the sins of them that transgresse thy Law.
And when wee consider and examine all our whole life, wee find nothing in our selues, that deserueth any other thing but eternall damna-tion. But because thou, O Lord, of thy vnspeakeable mercy, hast commaunded vs in all our necessities to call ourely vpon thee; and hast also promised, that thou wilt heare our prayers, not for any our desert (which is none) but for the merits of thy Sonne our onely Sauour Iesus Christ, whom thou hast ordained to be our onely Mediatour and Intercessour. We lay away all confidence in man, and doe flee to the Throne of thy onely mercy, by the intercession

A forme of Prayer

tion of thy onely Sonne our Sauour Iesu Christ. And first of all, wee doe most lament and bewaile, from the bottome of our hearts, our unkindnesse and vnthankfullnesse to wards thee our Lord, considering that besides those thy benefits which wee enioy as thy creatures, common with all mankind, thou hast bestowed many and singular speciall benefites vpon vs, which wee are not able in heart to conceiue, much lesse in words worthily to expresse. Thou hast called vs to the knowledge of thy Gospel. Thou hast released vs from the hard ser-uitude of Sathan. Thou hast deliuered vs from superstition and Idolatry, wherein we were vtterly drowned, & hast brought vs into the most cleare and comfortable light of thy blessed word, by the which we are taught how to serue and honor thee, & how to liue orderly with our neighbours in truth and verity. But wee most vnmindfull in times of prosperitie, of these thy great benefites, haue neglected thy Commandements, haue abused the knowledge of thy Gospel, and haue followed our carnall libertie, and serued our olone lusts, and through our sinfull life, haue not worshipped and honoured thee as we ought to haue done. And now, O Lord, being euen compelled with thy correction, we doe most humbly confesse that wee haue sinned, and haue most grievously offended thee by many and sin-day wayes. And if thou, O Lord, wouldest now, being prouoked with our disobedience, so deale with

with vs as thou mightest, and as we haue deserued, there remaineth nothing else to bee looked for, but vniuersall and continuall plagues in this world, and hereafter eternall death and damnation, both of our bodies and of our soules. For if we should excuse our selues, our owne consciences would accuse vs before thee, and our owne disobedience and wickednesse would beare witnesse against vs. Yea, even thy plagues and punishments which thou doest now lay open vpon vs in sundry places, doe teach vs to acknowledge our sinnes. For seeing, O Lord, that thou art iust, yea even Justice it selfe, thou punishest no people without desert. Yea, even at this present O Lord, wee see thy hand terribly stretched out to plague vs, and punish vs. But although thou shouldest punish vs more grievously then thou hast done, and for one plague send vs many, if thou shouldest powre vpon vs all those thy testimonies of thy most iust wrath, which in times past thou powrest on thy owne chosen people of Israel: yet shouldest thou doe vs no wrong, neither could wee deny but we had iustly deserued the same.

But yet, O merciful Lord, thou art our God, and we nothing but dust and ashes: Thou art our Creatour, and we the worke of thy hands: Thou art our Pastor, wee are thy flocke: Thou art our redeemer, and we thy people redeemed: Thou art our heavenly father, wee are thy children. Wherefore punish vs not, O

I

Lord,

Lord, in thine anger, but chasten vs in thy mercie. Regard not the horroure of our finnes, but our vnfeined repentance. Mercie that worke which thou hast begun in vs, that the whole world may know, that thou art our God and Mercifull deliuerer. Thy people of Israel oftentimes offended thee, and thou most iustly afflictedst them: but as oft as they returned to thee, thou diddest receiue them to mercy. And though their finnes were neuer so great, yet thou alwayes turnedst away thy wrath from them, and the punishment prepared for them, and that for thy Couenant sake, which thou madest with thy seruants, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. Thou hast made the same Couenant with vs (O heauenly Father) or rather a Couenant of more excellencie and efficacie, and that namely through the mediation of thy deare Sonne Iesus Christ our Saviour, with whose most precious Blood, it pleased thee that this Couenant should bee, as it were, written, sealed, and confirmed. Wherefore, O heauenly Father, we now casting away all confidence in our selues or any other creature, doe flee to this most holy Couenant and Testament, wherein our Lord and Saviour Iesus Christ, once offered himselfe a Sacrifice for vs on the Crosse, and hath reconciled vs to thee for ever. Look therefore, O mercifull God, not vpon the finnes which wee continually commit: but vpon our Mediatour and Peace-maker Iesus Christ, that

for this time of Visitation, &c.

that by his intercession thy wrath may be pacified, and wee againe by thy fatherly condescendence relieved and comforted. Receive vs also into thy heavenly defence, and governe vs by thy holy Spirit, to frame in vs a newnesse of life, therein to laud and magnifie thy blessed Name for ever, and to lue every one of vs according to the severall state of life, wherunto thou, Lord, hast ordained vs in godly feare and trembling before thee. And although wee are unworthy (O heavenly Father) by meanes of our former foule life, to craue any thing of thee: yet because thou hast commanded vs to pray for all men, we most humbly heere vpon our knees beseech thee, save and defend thy holy Church, be mercifull, O Lord, to all Common weales, Countreys, Princes, and Magistrates, and especially to this our Realme, and to our most gracious King and gouernour, King Charles and Queene Mary; increase the number of godly Ministers, indue them with thy grace to be found faithfull and prudent in their office, defend the Kings Maiesties Councell, and all that be in authority vnder him, or that serue in any place by his commandement for this Realme. Wee commend also to thy fatherly mercie, all those that bee in pouerty, exile, imprisonment, sickness, or any other kinde of aduersity, and namely those whom thy hand now hath touched with any contagious and dangerous sickness, which wee beseech thee, O Lord, of thy mercy

A forme of Prayer

(when thy blessed will is) to remooue from vs, and in the meane time; grant vs grace and true repentance, stedfast faith, and constant patience, that whether we liue or die, wee may alwayes continue thine, and euer praise thy holy Name, and by thy great mercie bee partakers of grace in this life, and eternall glory in the life to come.
Grant vs these and all other our humble petitions (O mercifull Father) for thy deare Sonnes sake Iesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ The second Collect for peace.

O God which art Author of peace, and loue of concord, in knowledge of whom standeth our eternall life, whose seruice is perfect free-dome, defend vs thy humble seruants in all assaults of our enemies, that wee surely trusting in thy defence, may not feare the power of any aduersaries, through the might of Iesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ The third Collect for grace.

O Lord our heauenly Father, Almighty and euerlasting God, which hast safely brought vs to the beginning of this day, defend vs in the same with thy mighty power, and grant that this day we fall into no sinne, neither runne into any kinde of danger: but that all our doings may be ordered by thy gouernance, to doe alwayes that is righteous in thy sight, through Iesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

wickednesse. And therefore, most righteous Judge, thy patience being (as it were) overcome at the last, with our obstinate vnrrepentance, thou hast most iustly executed those thy terrible threats now partly vpon vs, by plaguing vs so (with most dreadfull and deadly sickness) whereby great multitudes of vs are daily afflicted and consumed. We beseech thee, O mercifull Father, that in thy wrath thou wilt remember thy old great mercies, and so correct vs in thy iudgements, and not in thy first anger, lest we be all consumed and brought to nought. Looke not so much vpon vs and our deservings, O most righteous Judge, to take iust vengeance on our sinnes: but rather remember thy infinite mercies, O most mercifull Father, promised to vs by thy dearely beloued Sonne our Sauour Iesus Christ, for whose sake, and in whose Name, wee doe earnestly and humbly craue mercy and forgiveness of our sinnes, and deliuerance from this horrible sickness, being the first punishment and plague for the same. And as thy holy word doeth testifie, that the people of all ages, being iustly plagued for their sinnes, and yet in their distresse vnsainedly turning vnto thee, and suing for thy mercy, obtained the same: So likewise wee most worthily now afflicted with grievous & dreadfull plagues for our iniquities, pray thee, O mercifull Father, to grant vs thy heavenly grace, that wee may likewise both truly and vnsainedly repent, and obtaine thy mercy, and deliuerance from the same, which wee beseech thee, O Father of all mercies, and God of all consolation, to grant vs, for the same Iesus Christs sake, our onely Saviour, Mediatour and Adocate, Amen.

If had bene the best for vs, O most righteous Judge, and our most mercifull Father, that in our welfare, health and quietnes, & in the middest of thy manifold benefits, continually bestowed vpon vs, most unworthy sinners, we had of long hearkened to thy voyce, and turned vnto thee our most louing and gra-tious Father: for in so doing, wee had done the partes of good and obedient louing children. It had also bene well, if at thy dreadfull threats out of thy holy word continually pronounced vnto vs by thy seruants our Preachers, we had of feare, as corrigible seruants, turned from our wickednesse. But alas we haue shewed hitherto our felices towards thee neither as louing children (O most mercifull Father) neither as tolerable seruants, O Lord most mightie.
Wherefore now we feele thy heauy wrath, O most righteous Judge, iustly punishing vs with griuous and deadly sickenesse and plagues, we doe now confesse and acknowledge, and to our most iust punishment doe finde in deede, that to be most true, which wee haue so often heard threatned

threatned against vs out of the holy Scriptures, the word of thy eternall verity: that thou art the same vñchangeable God, of the same iustice that thou wilt, and of the same power that thou canst punish the like wickednesse and obstinacie of vs impenitent sinners in these dayes, as thou hast done in all ages heretofore. But the same thy holy Scriptures, the word of thy trueth doe also testifie, that thy strength is not wõttened, but that thou canst, neither thy goodnesse abated, but that thou wilt helpe those that in their distresse doe flie vnto thy mercies, and that thou art the same God of all, rich in mercy towards all that call vpon thy name, and that thou dost not intend to destroy vs utterly, but fatherly to correct vs, who hast pitie vpon vs, euen when thou dost scourge vs, as by thy said holy word, thy gracious promises, and the examples of thy Saints in the holy Scriptures exprested for our comfort, thou hast assured vs. Grant vs, O most mercifull father, that wee fall not into the vttermost of all mischieses, to become worse vnder thy scourge, but that this thy rod may by thy heauenly grace, speedily worke in vs the fruite and effect of true repentance, vñfained turning and conuerting vnto thee, and perfect amendment of our whole liues, that as we through our impenitencie, doe now most worthily feele thy iustice punishing vs: so by this thy correction, wee may also feele the sweete comfort of thy mercies, graciously pardoning doing our finnes, and pitifully releasing these griuous punishments and dreadfull plagues.

This we craue at thy hands (O most mercifull father) for thy deare Sonne our Saviour Jesus Christes sake. Amen.

Lord, we haue sinned, we haue sinned, and multiplied our abominations in thy sight, the wanton provocation of lust in our meates, the uncleane pollution of whoredome like that of Israel is on our tables, and in our tents: and we haue magnified our selues in the multitude and mightinesse of our Nation as did Dauid, and thy wrath is incensed, & the plague is great amongst vs: iust art thou (O God) in thy iudgements, and it is thy mercy that we are not bitterly consumed. And yet (O Lord) such is the hardnesse of our hearts, and so great is our security in the custome of sinne, as that we are not truely touched in our soules & consciences, either with that feeling apprehension of thine indignation against vs, or with that fearefull expectation of further calamities, as might direct and cast vs downe before thee with that consternation and confession as becommeth such miserable and wretched sinners as we are. Notwithstanding (O father of pity and much mercy) deale not with vs according to our finnes, neither reward vs according to our iniquities, but sanctifie vnto vs this thy visitation: wound our flesh with thy feare: possesse our soules with an awfull dread of thy power, thou which hast the hearts of all men in thy hands to preuent and prepare as it shall please thee. Conuert vs, and we shall bee conuerted: turne vs, and wee shall be turned vnto thee, take our wickednesse from vs, and thou shalt finde none. But being pleased to bee reconciled againe vnto vs in the name and mediation of our onely Advocate and Saviour Iesus Christ, burying those great and grievous sinnes of our Nation in the graue of that thy Sonne: heale vs againe, O Lord, thou that hast wounded vs, let the voyce of ioy and health be in our dwellings: So shall wee giue thankes vnto thee in the great Congregation, and record thy mercies for ever and ever.

Thou hast smitten vs (O Lord) thou hast plagued vs, and scattered the noysome pestilence in our chiefe Cities, and in our habitations round about, and we cry vnto thee (O Lord) but the soze runneth and ceaseth not. Yet is not thine eare heauy that thou canst not heare: neither is thine arme shortned, that thou canst not helpe: but our sinnes haue made a separation betweene thee and vs. Teach vs therefore (O Lord) truely to repent vs of all our wickednesse, that thou also mayest repent thee of the euill interded against vs. And as the loathsome saour of our finnes hath ascended vp into thy nostrils to prouoke thy wrath and procure this plague against vs: So let our humble supplications testified with our teares and sighes poured forth befoze thee, sanctified through faith in the intercession of our Saviour, and thy Sonne Iesus Chast, come vp into thy sight (as did the Incense of Aaron when hee stood betwene the liuing and the dead) to turne away thy wrathfull indignation from vs. Oh, let vs liue, and wee will praise thee, and thy iudgements shall teach vs, and informe vs in thy feare, that wee may frame the rest of our life in all holy obedience according to thy will: and in the end of our dayes may bee receiued through thy mercy and compassion into thy eternall glory without end. Amen.

O Lord our God most gracious and mercifull, we most miserable wretches humbly beseech thee in mercy and compassion to behold our grievous afflictions; for thine indignation lieth hard vpon vs, thine arrowes stick fast in vs, and the venime thereof doth drinke vp our spirits, and thy terrours doe fight against vs. Wee confesse (O Lord) that these thy iudgements are iust: for we haue multiplied our transgressions like the sand of the sea, and the cry of them hath beene so great, that it

it hath pierced the Heauens, and called for vengeance against vs. But yet wee beseech thee, O Lord, forget not thou to bee gracious, and shew not by thy louing kindnesse in displeasure: turne thee againe at the last, and be gracious vnto thy seruants. Helpe vs, O God of our saluation, for the glory of thy Name: O deliuer vs, and bee mercifull vnto our sinnes for thy Names sake: take thy plague away from vs, for wee are euery consumed by the meanes of thy heauie hand: cause thine Angel to sheath his sword againe, and preserue thou those which are appointed to die. O satisfie vs with thy mercy, and that soon; so shall wee reioyce and bee glad all the dayes of our life. Comfort vs againe now after the time that thou hast plagued vs: So shall we that be thy people and sheepe of thy pasture, giue thee thanks for ever; and wee will alwayes be shewing forth thy praise from generation to generation. Grant vs (O Lord) we beseech thee, these graces, for Iesus Christ his sake thy onely Sonne and our onely Saviour, Amen.

 Almighty God and heauenly Father, whose iustice and iudgement is most seuer and fearefull against those that wittingly and willingly transgresse thy holy commandments, and stubbozely continue in their sinnes and wickednes: whose mercy againe is infinite, and most ready to pardon and succour all such as in true repentance turne from their sinnes faith and mediation of Iesus Christ: Wee thy humble seruants and miserable sinners, now visited and sore afflicted with this grievous plague and pestilence, most worthily sent amongst vs for our iniquities and transgressions, in true acknowledgement of our manifold wickednesse, and thy iust iudgement vpon vs for the same, in vnfeigned repentance and hearty sorrow for our sinnes, with a full purpose and promise by thy gracious assistance of a better life hereafter, doe now come vnto thy Throne of grace, in the name and mediation of thy deare Sonne (in whom thou art well pleased, our Lord and Saviour Iesus Christ) in assured faith of atonement purchased for vs, by his blood, and full confidence of thy generall pardon proclaimed vnto vs in the Gospel: most humbly beseeching thee for his sake, to pardon and forgiue vs all our sinnes past, in thought, word, and deed, any wayes committed against thy diuine Majestie, and holy Lawes: to giue vnto vs every day more earnest and vnfeigned repentance for the same: to plant in our hearts by the grace of thy holy Spirit, a settled feare of thy name, and full resolution to lead the rest of our life in the carefull obedience of thy holy will in our callings, and faithfull hope of a better life to come:

and so to remooue from vs speedily this heauy plague and grievous affliction, which now reigneth

heth and rageth amongst vs; least we be bitterly consumed. Grant vs good Lord, of thy grace and mercy, all meanes needfull hereunto: seasonable weather and good ayre, wholesome meats and medicines, and whatsoeuer else thou knowest profitable for vs: together, with a due care and conscience in our selues, to vse the same accordingly: that neither wee tempt thy Maiesty by presumption, in contemning of the contagion; or neglecting the meanes of auoiding, removing, and repressing the same: neither despair of thy goodnesse, or murmur against thy prouidence (if wee be not so soone eased and deliuered as we desire:) but that wee may (submitting our selues in all things to thy good will and pleasure) seeke thy mercifull fauour for our release and succor by true faith and repentance: vse the meanes for ease which thou giuest vs, with care and diligence: helpe the afflicted, and preserve the whole with compassionate pity and charity: and finally depend vpon thy prouidence, and wait for thy gracious deliuerance, with constant hope and patience. Heare vs, and helpe vs, O Lord God of mercy, and father of compassion, in the Name and for the sake of thy deare Sonne our most gracious Mediator and Redeemer, and most glorious Lord and Sauerour Iesus Christ, Amen.

¶ The Prayer for the Nauie.

O Eternall God, and our most gracious Father: Thou art the Lord of Hostes, and the strength of all Nations is from thee: if thou keepest not the Citie, and the kingdome, the watchman waketh but in vaine: And no Victorie can waite vpon the iustest designs, vpon the wisest Counsels, vpon the strongest Armies, if thou teachest not their hands to warre, and their fingers to fight. Thou art the steddy hope of all the ends of the Earth, and of them which goe and remaine in the broad Sea. Lord at this time we neede thy more speciall assistance both by Land, and Sea, and for the mercy of Christ denie vs neither. Be with our Armies, and the Armies of our Allies and Associates by Land: Bee with Our Nauie at Sea. Bee not from the one, or from the other in power, and in great mercy, vntill thou hast brought them backe with honour, and a settled peace. Lord turne our enemies sword into their owne bosome; for wee sought peace, and ensued it, and while wee did so, they did more then make themselves ready to battaile. Wee are thy seruants, truly and heartily sorry for our sinnes; Lord forgive them; and then we will trust vpon thee, that thou wilt power downe all thy blessings vpon this and all other Designs and Actions of this State, vndertaken for thy glory, the honour of our most gracious King CHARLES, and the Peace and welfare uernour of all things, whose power no creature is able to resist, to whom it belongeth justly to punish sinners, and to be mercifull to them that truly repent: Saue and deliuer vs (wee humbly beseech thee) from the hands of our enemies, abate their pride, allwage their malice, and confound their deuices, that we being armed with thy defence, may be preserved e-art the onely giuer of all victory, through the merits of thy onely Sonne Jesu Christ our

cl. 2.12.

Turne you vnto me, with all your hearts, with fasting, weeping, and mourning: rent your hearts, and not your clothes. Turne you vnto the Lord your God, for hee is gracious and mercifull, long suffering, and of great compassion, and ready to pardon wickednesse. Then (no doubt) he also shall turne and forgiue: and after his chastening, hee shall let your encrease remaine for meate and drinke offerings vnto the Lord your God. Blow out with the trumpet in Sion, proclaim a fasting, call the Congregation, and gather the people together: warne the Congregation, gather the Elders, bring the children and sucklings together. Let the bridegrome goe forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet. Let the Priests serue the Lord betweene the Porch and the Altar, weeping, and saying, Bee favourable, O Lord, be favourable vnto thy people, let not thine heritage bee brought to such confusion, lest the Heathen bee Lords thereof. Wherefore should they say among the Heathen, Where is now their God?

But thou, when thou fastest, anoynt thine head, and wash thy face, that it appeare not vnto men how that thou fastest, but vnto thy Father, which is in secret, and thy Father which seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly. Hee suffered, and was buried, and the third day he rose again, according to the Scriptures, and ascended into heauen, and sitteth on the right hand of the Father. And hee shall come againe with glory to iudge both the quicke and the dead: whose kingdome ment, vntill thou hast forgiven our sinne: Wee may not thinke thou wilt forgive our sinne, vntill our Humiliation and Repentance come to aske forgivenesse. Wee haue beene too slow to come, and now thou hast apparelled thy mercie in Justice to force vs to thee. Lord wee beleeue, but doe thou encrease our Faith, our Devotion, our Repentance, and all Christian vertues in vs. At this time the vials of thy heauie displeasure drop downe vpon vs; and while we smart vnder one Iudgement, thou threatnest the rest. The pestilence spreadeth in our streets, and goeth as if it sought whom to deuoure. No strength is able to stand against it, and it threatneth to make families, nay Cities desolate. While the pestilence eateth by the people, wee heare the sound of warre, and the sword calleth for such as it would deuoure. In the meane time the heauens are blacke ouer vs, and thy clouds droppe leanness, and it will be famine, to swallow what the pestilence and the sword shall leaue alieue, vntill thou sendest seasonable weather to receiue the fruits of the earth in their season. Lord our sinnes haue deserued all this, and more, and we neither doe, nor can deny it: wee haue no whither to goe but to mercy: wee haue no way to that, but by the all-sufficient merite of thy Son our blessed Saviour. Lord for his merite and mercies sake looke downe vpon vs thy distressed seruants. Command thine Angell to stay his hand; and remember that

for this time of Visitation, &c.

that in death wee cannot praise thee, nor giue thankes in the pit. Goe forth with our Armies when they goe, and make vs remember that all our strength and deliuerance is in thee. Cleare vp the heauens ouer vs, and take not from vs the great plenty, with which thou hast crowned the earth; but remember vs, thou that feedest the Ravens when they call vpon thee. Lord wee need all thy mercies to fall vpon vs, and thy mercies are altogether in Christ, in whom, and for whose sake wee begge them of thee, who li-nest and reignest with him in the unitie of the Spirit, one God world without end. Amen.

O Most mighty God and mercifull Father, wouldest not the death of a sinner, but that hee should rather turne from sinne, and bee saued: mercifully forgine vs our trespasses, recue and comfort vs, which be grieved and wearied with the burden of our sinne. Thy property is to haue mercy, to thee onely it appertaineth to forgine sinnes. Spare vs therefore, good Lord, spare thy people whom thou hast redeemed: ex-ter not into iudgement with thy seruants, which be vile earth and miserable sinners: but so quicken thine eye from vs, which mercifully knowledg our wilenesse, and timely repent vs of our faultes: so make haste to helpe vs in this world, that we may eternally live with thee in the world to come, through Iesus Christ our Lord, Turne thou vs. O good Lord, and so shall we be turned: be fauourable, O Lord, bee fauourable to thy people, which turne to thee in weeping, fasting, and praying: for thou art a mercifull God, full of compassion, long suffering, and of great pitie. Thou sparest when wee deserue punishment, and in thy wrath thinkest vpon mercy. Spare thy people, good Lord, spare them, and let not thine heritage bee brought to confusion. Heare vs, O Lord, for thy mercy is great, and after the multitude of thy mercies looke vpon vs.

Asist vs mercifully, O Lord, in these our supplications and prayers, and dispose the way of thy seruants toward the attainment of euermlasting saluation, that among all the changes and chances of this mortall life, they may euer be defended by thy most gracious and ready helpe, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, which hast promised to heare the petitions of them that aske in thy sonnes Name, we beseech thee mercifully to en-cline thine eares to vs that haue made now our prayers and supplications vnto thee, and grant that those things which we haue faithfully asked according to thy will, may effectually be ob-

Anforme of Prayer

The order for Evening prayer.

A Mend your liues, for the kingdome of God is at hand.

tt. 3.

Dearely beloved brethren, the Scripture moueth vs, As in Morning prayer.

That all confession to be said of the whole Congregation after the Ministers kneeling.

A Almighty and most mercifull Father, wee haue erred and strayed from thy wayes like lost sheepe, wee haue followed too much the deuises and desires of our owne hearts, wee haue offended against thy holy lawes, wee haue left vndone those things which we ought to haue done, And we haue done those things which we ought not to haue done, And there is no health in vs: But thou, O Lord, haue mercy vpon vs miserable offenders; Spare thou them, O God, which confesse their faults; Restore thou them that be penitent, according to thy promises declared vnto mankinde in Christ Iesu our Lord; And graunt, O most mercifull Father, for his sake, that we may hereafter liue a godly, righteous, and sober life, to the glory of thy holy Name. Amen.

The absolution or remission of sinnes to bee pronounced by the Priest alone.

sus Christ, which desireth not the death of a sinner, sinner, but rather than he may turne from his wickednesse and hyle, and his glorie poynt and commandement to his Ministers, to declare and pronounce to his people, being penitent, the absolution and remission of their finnes: he pardoneth and absolvethe all them which truly repent, and unfeignedly beleene his holy Gospel. Wherefore wee beseech him to graunt vs true repentance and his holy Spirit, that those things may please him which we doe at this present, and that the rest of our life hereafter may bee pure and holy, so that at the last we may come to his eternall ioy through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The people shall answer, Amen.

¶ Then shall the Minister begin the Lords prayer with a loude voyce.

O our father which art in heauen. Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdome come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heauen. Giue vs this day our daily bread. And forgine vs our trespases, as we forgine them that trespasse against vs. And leade vs not into temptation: but deliuer vs from euill: for thine is the kingdome, the power and the glory for euer. My soule doth magnifie the Lord: and my spirit hath reioyced in God my Saviour.

For hee hath regarded: the lowliness of his handmaiden.

For behold, from hencefoorth: all generations shall call me blessed.

For hee that is mighty hath magnified mee: and holy is his Name.

And his mercy is on them that feare him: throughout all generations.

He hath shewed strength with his arme: hee hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.

An Exposition
A Short Preface to be used before the Exhortation following, by the Minister who is not a Preacher.

WHen the Apostles wrote their seuerall Epistles to diuers Churches, they were to be read (by the Ministers especially) in the Publike Congregations. As it may appeare, in that S. Paul hauing written at large of many points of Religion to the Thessalonians, con-cludeth in this sort: I charge you in the Lord, that this Epistle be read vnto all the breshren, the Saints. And in the end of his Epistle to the Colossians: when this Epistle, saith he, is read of you: cause that it be read in the Church of the Laodiceans also: and that yee also read the Epistle written from Laodicea.

The name of Homilies by a misfunderstanding conceit, is not acceptable with many: and yet they are nothing else in effect, but Epistles or Declarations grounded vpon the Word of God, to teach Christian men & women their duties to his Diuine Maiesly, how to beleeue, and what to practise: carefully and soundly written vnto vs by Apostolicall men, with the approbation of the Church. There is here set downe, agreeable to the time, a godly Exhortation or Epistle (as it may well bee termed) written vnto you all here present, by such as are in authoritie, and doe loue you with an vnfained

An Exhortation.

ned loue in Christ Iesu, who intreat you by the mercies of God, that you will bee content and willing to heare, what for your good, vpon mature deliberation they doe write vnto you: not as of themselues, but in the blessed Name of the most glorious Trinitie: to whom they cease not to commend you all in their daily prayers.

An Exhortation fit for the time.

In the due consideration of the mortalitie and plague, where- with God at this time hath grie- uously visited vs, two principall things are to bee looked into: first, what may bee the cause of this infectious disease: then what cure, or reme- dy may be prouided to remoue, stay, or mitigate the spreading and the increase thereof. The Philosopher and Physician doe alledge such nat- urall causes as these; the infection of the ayre, the corruption of the blood, and humors in the body of man: the contagion which the sound party may receiue from persons, or places already infected: and all these are true in their kind. But ouer and aboue these causes alledged, the graue and weightie authority of the word of God must informe vs of another cause, a cause not naturall, but supernaturall: namely, the wrath

An Exhortation.

wrath of God prouoked and incensed by the sins of any Nation or people, hath often brought in the pestilence, as the sword and scourge of God to destroy them, or chasten them for their sinnes.
The people of Israel murmured against God in the wildernesse, and not regarding his louing care and prouidence ouer them (who led them miraculously with water out of the Rocke, and with Manna from Heauen) waxed wanton in their desires, and required flesh also for their lust, which, though they obtained, yet not withstanding, while the meat was in their mouthes, the plague of God fell vpon them, and slew the wealthiest of them, and smote downe the chosen men that were in Israel, as you may read, Againe, the multitude of the people of Israel taking part with those factious and seditious conspirators, Corah, Dathan and Abiram, murmured against Moses and Aaron, and grudged against that their authoritie of Magistracie and Priesthood wher-in God himselfe had established them: wherefore a plague came vpon them, and there died 14700. Againe the same people of Israel committed whoredome with the daughters of Moab, which called them also to the sacrifice of their gods; wherefore the wrath of the Lord was kindled against Israel, and there died in that plague 24000. Againe in the dayes of King Da-uid the wrath of the Lord was kindled against Israel, and Satan moued Dauid to number Israel and Iuda: and the Lord sent a pestilence, and there died of the people from Dan to Beersheba 70000. The Apostle, St. Paul also, signifieth Cor. II. in his Epistle to the Corinthians, that for their profanation and abusing the holy Sacrament of the Lords Supper, many of them were sicke and weake, and many died. Lastly, of all in the phe. 5. same Apostle saith, that for such things cometh the wrath of God vpon the children of disobedience. So that from these examples we see, that sinne moueth the Lord to wrath, and the wrath of the Lord sendeth the plague, mortality, diseases, and death among men.

Which being so euident a truth, confirmed by so many examples out of the holy Scriptures, it must be confessed and acknowledged that the same cause hath procured the same punishment with vs: and that in these daies, these enill daies of ours, our transgressions in number more, and in degree more hainous then those of Israel, haue filled full the measure of iniquitie, and caused God to fill full the cup of his wrath, and given vs this deadly wine to drinke. The people of Israel required meat for their lust, and and drunkenesse, and as those that make their become a by-word vnto neighbour nations for gluttony, and belly-cheare. The people of Is-moreouer, that ſwearing, outragious oathes, and euell ſpeakings are to bee heard out of the mouthes of all eſtates, yea, euen of very children in our ſtreets, whereby the name of God is very grievouſly prophaned. Alde alſo that nation vnto the Lord. And therefore no maruelle if that flying booke of the curse of God against the swearer, and the thiefe, haue entred into our houses, and taken holde of the stone, and timber thereof. Besides all these, the Lords day is not kept holy, but polluted: the word of God and the ministry thereof is not reuerenced, but despised: his holy Sacraments are either neglected, or abused: generally the name of God is euill spoken of among the aduersaries of the truth through vs, and our dissolute and li-centious conuersation: & therefore the cause is apparent why the plague is broken in amongst vs: God hauing threatened vs in his word as the people of Israel, that because wee will not obey the voyce of the Lord our God to doe all his Commandements, and his Ordinances which he commands vs, hee will smite vs with a consumption, and with a feuer, and with a burning ague, and shall cause the pestilence to cleaue vnto vs vntill wee haue consumed vs from the land. And thus much of the cause of the pestilence.

Now let vs examine and see what hope of helpe, what cure or remedie, remaineth vnto vs in this visitation. The remedie is to be sorted out answerable to the cause of the disease: so that if Gods anger against sinne hath caused this mortallitie amongst vs (as heretofore hath bee the wed amongst other people) if wee shall remoue our finnes out of the sight of God, his wrath

An Exhortation.

Wrath shall cease; and with his wrath our punishment. For the applying of this soueraigne balme vnto our present sore, there is by publike order prescribed, that fasting and prayer, the true signes and tokens of our vntained repentance, and conuersion vnto God, should be exercised in all Congregations: especially in and about London, that all degrees and estates of people might thereby be admonished to humble themselves vnder the mighty hand of God, to acknowledge their finnes, and by their humiliation and detestation of their former wicked life, to testifie vnto the world, that they desire nothing more then to bee reconciled againe to their good & gracious God; that hereby cause his indignation to cease, and turne away this his fearefull chastisement from among vs: And as fasting and prayer are meanes spirituall, appointed in the word of God, and alwayes practised in the Church of God at such times as hee afflicteth his people with any contagious diseases or plagues for sinne: So are there also other naturall and ordinary meanes not to bee neglected, but to be retained and vsed against the naturall causes of this infection. For though it bee true that all things are guided by Gods providence: and that he doth what hee will doe in heauen and in earth: yet hee effecteth and bringeth his will to passe by order & by meanes that himselfe hath determined. The eyes of all things looke vp vnto the Lord, and trusting in him

him he giveth them their meat in due season: but yet the Lord will have all men to labour, and eate the labours of their hands, for the maintenance of their life. It is the Lord that bringeth backe againe from the gates of death, and restoreth men that were sicke to their former health: and yet hath hee ordained the Physician, & created many medicinable and comfortable things to promote and preserve the health of man, and hath commanded us to use them. Men must plant and water: though it be onely God that giveth the increase. If the husbandmen should give over their tillage, and pretend that they meant to depend upon Gods providence, looking either to be fed from heaven, or that earth should of her owne accord bring forth unto them graine and corne, and all necessary fruits for their reliefe: were it not in respect of themselves extreme madnesse, and towards God a most wicked temptation? It cannot be denied, but that this grievous sickness which now reigneth amongst us, both is and shall be governed by Gods providence, downe to that they list: But yet such as truly feare God, & are truly instructed out of his word, will submit themselves unto his heavenly providence in such sort as he hath appointed them. When good king Ezechiah was sicke of this disease of the plague, as Divines doe deliver, hee prayed and wept, and used those meanes meete to pacifie the anger of God. And when God had determined that hee should

should not die of that sicknesse: though he could no doubt haue healed him without meanes by his word onely, yet hee directeth his Prophet to signifie vnto him the medicinable meanes of his helpe, namely, that he should apply a plaister of figges to his soze to ripen and heale it. So that we see, first prayer to God; and then the vse of other necessary and profitable meanes must not be neglected.

Now if any man should object or say: this visitation commeth of God, and I know not whether I may pray against it, he bewrayeth greatly his ignorance in the Scriptures of God. for in euery visitation of this, or any other plague there mentioned, you shall find that the holy men of God still laboured by prayer and supplication vnto God to remoue the same from themselves and their people. Moyses is said to haue stood in the gappe to turne away the wrath of God, and Aaron ranne with his golden censer to stand bet weene the liuing and the dead, and Phinees the Priest stood by and prayed, and the plague ceased. Dauid seeing the Angel ready to destroy Ierusalem, built an Altar, offered sacrifice, and brake forth into that his most ardent, and earnest supplication for the people.

and continuing of this infection, as the contagion that the disease it selfe hath bred, & which one man receiveth from another, the sound from those that are sicke: Therefore also men are to learne that one chiefe & ordinary meane of their preservation in this dangerous time is, the avoyding of the contagion that cometh by mingling disorderly the sound, and the sicke together. And if there be any that being yet sound doe thinke they are not bound in conscience to shunne and avoide the persons and places that are infected, except it be in case of necessitie: or if those that are diseased, or doe keepe in houses where the disease is knownen to be, shall thinke much that they are shut vp, and restrained from continuing abroad, or frequenting the common and publique assemblies of those that are cleare, having in the meane time such things as are necessary for their sustentation: They must bee content to heare out of the word of God their error therein and ignorance. The disease of the leprosie was infectious as is the pestilence, and whensoever any were smitten with that disease, it was not surely without the will or providence of God: and yet we may safely learne even of God himselfe without any prejudice to his good providence, how wee ought in that and other kinde of infectious maladies to demean our selves for the avoyding of the damage thereof. The Leper (saith the Lord in the 13. Chapter of Leviticus,) in whom the plague is, shall haue haue his clothes rent, and his head bare, and shall put a couering vpon his lips, and shall cry: I am vncleane, I am vncleane. And as long as this disease shall be vpon him, he shall dwell alone; without the campe shall his habitation bee. The renting of his clothes here mentioned was a signe of his mourning and lamentation for that affliction: he dwelt alone for feare of infecting others; and that anytime he went abroad to take the aire, his lippes were couered, that his breath might not infect such as came neere him: And besides he was to giue warning, that all men might the more carefully auoyde him by crying out vnto them, I am vncleane, I am vncleane.

Furthermore it was ordered by the Lord, that the cloathes that were infected should be burnt, the houses purged, and in some cases of more danger of infection pulled downe and vtterly defaced: In which respect, there was a generall commandement giuen to the people, That they should take heed of the plague of the Leprosie. All these and diuers other rules and cautions prescribed by God himselfe, were chiefly grounded vpon this, That the disease of the leprosie was infectious. Whereby wee are to learne, that forasmuch as the disease of the plague is farre more infectious, contagious, and dangerous, then that was of the leprosie; wee should be so much the more carefull to auoid it: and such as are infected, more charitably minded, and re-lightly humbled vnder the hand of God, then disobeying all authority, to thrust themselves into the company of others, whereby the mortalitie daily so increaseth. And if any man should thinke that the disease of the plague were not contagious and infectious, so grosse a conceit is rather to be pittied, then confuted, being contrary to the common and lamentable experience of these times, and contrary to the iudgement of all learned and wise men in all ages. If therefore we desire that Almighty God should withdraw his heauie hand from vs, and deliuer vs from this affliction, it is not sufficient for vs by fasting and prayer, to humble our selues vnto his diuine Majesty, except wee ioyne therewith our best endeauours and diligence, by vsing such other meanes as God hath appointed for the staying of it. Other wise, if we despise all good meanes: if wee neither regard to keepe our selues in a good estate of our bodily health by the counsell of the learned Physician: if wee make a mocke of all preseruatiues of Art: if we neglect all euill and infectious sauiours, and refuse the benefit of the purer ayre: if wee run desperately and disorderly into all places and amongst all persons, and pretend our faith and trust in Gods prouidence, saying: If hee will saue me, he will saue me: and if I die, I die. This is not faith in God, but a grosse, ignorant, and foolhardie presidence and presumption, little different from that subtil temptation of Sathan to our Saviour Christ, to throw himselfe headlong from the toppe of the pinnacle, in hope that God would send his Angels to holde him vp, which were a wanton and dangerous tempting of God: or else with Saint Peter, to lead himselfe into temptation, and by desiring to walke on the water, to bring his life into a needlesse and vnnecessary hazard and perill without any warrant of an ordinary calling, or any comfort of a good conscience therein.

Moreover, if men at any time will prepare themselves to death, then should they especially when they are in the greatest danger, as they are who are already infected, or doe without urgent cause resort vnto them. Now in preparing our selues to leaue this world, what one thing almost is moze necessary then a charitable heart towards all men, which they cannot haue by any possible meanes, who either knowing themselves to bee infected doe keepe company with such as are cleare; or that being whole, doe enter without any necessity into places infected, and after wards resort into all companies, as if they were sure that neither they themselves nor their clothes were tainted. When King Azariah became a leper, because hee knew the danger of his disease, and found by the Law of God the restraint of those that were so diseased, though a King, yet was hee content to dwell in an house apart all the dayes of his life, and Iothan his sonne governed in his stead. This his obedience must needs condemne their disordered licentiousnesse, who though the meanest among the people, yet being infected thinke scorn to keepe their houses, though but for a short time; and breake abroad they will whatsoeuer come of it, no authority, orders, lawes or proclamations can restrain them: and others there are as willfull to associate and mingle themselves with them. Wherein, how cruell the one sort are against themselves in hazarding their own liues and theirs that depend on them; how vncharitable the other sort are towards their brethren, by deriuing their infection into them, and how inturious both sorts are to the state and common wealth wherein they liue, by prolonging and spreading the danger, which otherwise by their better gouernment might bee sooner suppressed, all wise men of sound iudgement are very forry either to see, or heare it.

Wherefore, considering all that hath bene spoken tendeth to this end, To shew that our sinnes haue caused this fearefull Visitation to breake forth against vs; and that the remedy left vnto vs for our hope of helpe herein, is our speedy repentance, with prayer and fasting, together also with the good vse of ordinarie meanes, and the wary and carefull carriage of our selues out of the danger of contagion: let vs bee truly wise, and demeane our selues in this time of our triall, as those that make good vse of Gods corrections: let vs neither mur-mure nor grudge against the will of God; nor take impatiently what our finnes haue deserued, and God in his fatherly care hath inflicted vpon vs for our amendment: let vs not now adde sinne vnto sinne, but soasmuch as the desperate security of those that seeme neither to feare, nor to flie from this infection, is but a tempting and prouoking of the iudgement of God: seeing it may bee an hinderance vnto the fruit of the prayers, and fasting of the Church, which be they neuer so strict and zealous, shall hardly procure a release of this burden of God, if wilfull and intemperate spirits will not bee kept in order: seeing such their vnruly licentiousnes extendeth it selfe to the breach of all charity, & bringeth vpon their owne heads no lesse then the guilt of wilfull murder both of themselves, their children, their families, and neighbours, which hatefull cruelty against their own kind, Turkes and infidels would abhorre: seeing it procureth also a publike and manifest detriment to the State, and places where they dwell, by hindering their trafficke, and impouering their neighbours in their trades and occupations: let men at the last be warned, and if there be any feare of God, any obedience to his word, any conscience of the Magistrates authority, any fruits of our faith and Christian profession, whose badge and cognizance is mutuall loue and charity, to further and procure the common good of all: let vs not goe for ward to tempt tempt God, to continue so cruell to our selues, and so harmefull to others: let vs be more humble in the day of our affliction, submitting our selues to those good and wholesome orders, and decrees already published for preventing the further infection of this our calamity, and making account of all good meanes, and medicinal helpe made knowne vnto vs for our better preservation: least we may seeme to mocke God by prayer and fasting, to begge a mitigation of this his terribull chastisement, and yet wee frame our actions contrary and opposite to the successe we pray for.

And among all other things yet spoken of, let this one aduice bee added without offence vnto any; That though it be a Christian and laudable custome to accompany the bodies of the dead vnto the graue, and commend them in decent manner vnto their rest: yet, seeing the end of such assemblies as are then gathered together is, by the vse of Prayer and the word preached rather to giue comfort vnto the liuing, then any benefit vnto the dead; let men be aduised, perswaded, and content, that their dead should bee buried with no more company then is needfull for the interring and laying them vp in the earth, because the gathering together of friends and neighbours in so common a contagion cannot bee without present danger, and hazard of their health and liues: and it is verely thought that infection by this meanes of meeting hath ensued vnto many. And here it time and place serued, the Magistrates might bee admonished of their oversight, in that they haue taken no more care in the beginning for the stay of the ouerflowing of this euill. But now the contagion being growen so generall, there is no probable meanes, especially in the City of London, how they can by any circumspection doe that good which might at the first entrance haue bin effected. So that now the chiefe remedy to bee expected from man is, that euery one should be a Magistrate vnto himselfe, and his whole family, and endeauour by all good care both to preserue themselves being yet sound: or being diseased, not to scatter their infection vpon others. If men acquainted with the custome of other countreyes, should compare the great seuerity there vsed in such times as these are, with the remisse indulgence which our Magistrates haue vsed, they shall find great difference of care and gouernment; which is not here remembred to vige any sharper directions, then may well agree with the nature of our people.

The conclusion of all is this, That though there cannot be too much care taken for the preseruing of those that are yet sound, and for the secluding and separating of those that are sicke:
yet must this warning bee there with giuen.
That the infected households may not be so shut vp, as that they be also shut out from all succour, and reliefe of necessary maintenance, very man-ny of those families which haue bene, and are yet visited, being of the poorer sort. To whose affliction, if you shall adde affliction, and suffer them to want meanes of ordinary sustentation; alas, what shall become of them, seeing necessity knoweth no law, and want and hunger breake stone walles? In which case of neede they will breake forth for the succor of their lines, though much more so much danger to themselves, or others; and therefore it shall well become those that are rich and able to helpe their fellow feeling of their brethrens necessitie; it shall well become the misery of the time, for men to be fruitful in good woordes, whereby their Christianitie may be testified unto God and men. And it shall well agree also, with the exercise of fasting and prayer now in hand; that in every assembly gathered together to that end, there be a collection made of the beneuolence of the people; to be faithfully and truly distributed by those that are put in trust, vnto the poore that be y and visited with this affliction. So shall your prayers, fasting and almesdeedes, as the incense, and odours of the faithfull, qualify the stench and corruption of our times, and as sacrifice where with God is well pleased, being made acceptable in that sweete smelling savour of our Saviour Christ his intercession shall mitigate the wrath of God, and turne away this his indignation from vs, restoring vs againe to his wonted fauour, and our former health and safety:

Order for the Fast.

THe godly vse of Fastings, in time of common calamitie, as Warre, Famine, Pestilence, and also when any weightie matter was in hand, for the Church and Common-wealth, is euident in holy Scriptures. Wherefore it is necessarie in so contagious time of sicknesse (our sinnes procuring iustly the wrath of God) that following the godly examples of King Iosaphat, and the King of Ninewe with others, Fasting with prayer be commended to the people by their Preachers.

Wednesday.

folkes, and necessarie Haruest labourers, or the like excepted) are required to eate vpon that day, but one competent and moderate Meale, and that towards night after Euening prayer: obseruing sobrietie of diet without superfluitie of ryotous fare, respecting necessitie and not voluptuousnesse.

3 The quantitie being but sufficient, it is not fit that any delicacie should bee regarded. Let no publike order bee contemned herein, nor dissimulation with God committed, pretending godly abstinence, but doing nothing lesse.

4 The wealthier sort are earnestly to be moued to bestow the price of the meale forborne, vpon the poore, considering the miserie and distresse of a number of hungry soules, either almost starving for lacke of foode, or being sicke with eating vniwholesome meates.

5 The people are to bee warned to forbear this day their bodily working, and common buying and selling (necessary occasions and labourers excepted) and to be exercised all the time in holy prayer, godly Meditations, and reuerend hearing of the Scriptures, either read or preached. And especially they are to take heede that they spend it not in playes, pastimes, idlenesse, haunting of Tauernes, lasciuious wantonnesse, surfeiting and drunkennesse: for which sinnes (the proper sinnes of our Nation) the heauie displeasure and wrath of God is fallen vpon vs.

6 Admonition is here lastly to bee giuen, that on the
